The Power of Reading

Dear Readers,

"Reading is essential for those who seek to rise above the ordinary" - Jin Rohn

Reading plays a significant role in moulding the life of an individual. It has the power to sharpen the memory and comprehend the essence of the content irrespective of any language. Daily reading enlightens the mind to think constructively. Additionally, it helps you to succeed in your work and enables you to achieve the goal without much stress. Reading books and other reference materials stimulates the brain and improves cognitive functions such as memory, concentration and decision making.

A loud reading always supports the clear pronunciation and builds up the confidence to speak publically. You become an effective communicator. It is essential to keep the habit of regular reading with a minimum amount of one or two pages without any compromise. It enriches your vocabulary and prepares you as an efficient orator and creative writer as well.

The habit of reading should be developed in the primary stage of learning to inculcate good qualities and lead you in the right direction. You can organise your thoughts before you react to any situation. Remember, a good reader is a good leader.

Keep reading to become an excellent performer and a consistent contributor for a better society. In fact, this will give a unique identification of you throughout life.

"Think before you speak
Read before you think"

Now you think !!!!!!!

Story Time

THE CRACKED POT

An old woman had two large pots, which she used to fill water. She hung each of these pots at the ends of a pole which she carried across her neck. One of the pots had a crack in it while the other pot was perfect and carried water up to the brim. At the end of the long walk from the stream to the house, the cracked pot arrived only half full.

This went on daily for two years with the woman bringing home only one and a half pots of water. Of course, the perfect pot was proud of itself while the poor cracked pot was ashamed of its own imperfection. It felt sad that it could not fill fully and be of complete use to the woman.

So one day the cracked pot spoke to the woman, "I am ashamed of myself because this crack in my side causes water to leak out all the way back to your house." The old woman smiled, "Did you notice that there are flowers on your side of the path, but not on the other pot's side?" The pot seemed puzzled. She continued, "That's because I have always known about your defect, and so I planted flower seeds on your side of the path. Every day while we walked back from the stream, you watered them. For two years I have been able to pick these beautiful flowers to decorate the table. Without you being just the way you are, there would not be these flowers to decorate the house."

Moral of the story : None of us is perfect and has our own defects. So, let us appreciate the people in our lives the way they are and value them for the uniqueness.

Conquering the fear

Once there lived a boy with his parents, his grandparents lived in the village. Whenever his holidays arrived he went with his parents to meet his grandparents. They would stay there for a month and then return to the city.

One day the boy grew up and told to his parents, "I am now big and would be going alone to meet my grandparents." The parents didn't agree but he insisted. His parents were worried about his safety.

The day came when he was leaving alone to meet his grandparents. His parents came to the railway station to tell him good bye.

Finally, he got his seat and sat there. His father was talking with him through the window, his father gave him an envelope and said, "If you got scared then open the letter. It will help you to overcome the fear." The boy took the letter and put it in his pocket.

As the train started he saw a big man who was sitting at some distance, was looking at him. He feared the man and turned his head in the opposite direction. Then he remembered that his father gave him a letter to overcome fear.

When he opened the letter he read "Hey Son, this is your father, and don't worry I am on the next coach traveling with you." Then the boy took a deep breath and the fear vanished.

Life is a balance of fear and overcoming it.

ALUMINI VIEW

Being alumina of this school, I was exposed to an environment where not only education but also holistic development of students was considered equally important in the developmental years. This School provided quality education and gave much needed skills of leadership, teamwork, creative innovation by various activities performed in school. Teachers were friendly and always ready to help. Thanks to School for marvellous education that it gave me.

– Jil Vyomeshkumar Patel

I am always thankful to all my dearest primary school teachers and even the non- teaching staff. They all supported me and all other students each and every time. I got many chances for leading opportunity and participating in many activities. I am so grateful to the school that I just can't express in words. I loved all the moments with all my amazing teachers and friends. I consistently think, "Your kindness compassion makes you a fantastic teacher". I still remembered my very first day in the school, I cried because I didn't want to leave my parents. Those were tears of sorrow but the day when I left this school after completing my last exam, I again cried my heart out after reaching my home. These were mixed feelings, that was tears of joy about the fact that I have successfully completed my primary education with good and expected grades but along with that, my eyes also shed tears of knowing the fact that I have to leave this lovely school now, and I won't get the same teachers, principal and all in my secondary or higher secondary schools. At last, from the bottom of my heart, I thank all my dearest and fabulous primary school teachers, principal mam, non- teaching staff and other people of the school for supporting me and giving their 100% for our development.

HOME SCHOOLING

Home schooling is a home - given instruction for children, conducted by Parents, tutor so even online teachers. Home schooling can give a good education to kids, but has not only pros, but also cons.

Parents choose this type of education for many different reasons:

- Because of health problems,
- To provide the religious instruction,
- Dissatisfaction with the school instruction,
- Competitive sports and many others

Home Schooling like every other topic being discussed in the society there are two opinions on the topic of Home Schooling

During adolescence teens can be bullied, which is why many parents decide to educate their children at home. If the kids are educated at home, parents don't have to worry about bullying experiences. But at the same time with a home schooling education daily interactions with other kids is limited or doesn't exist at all and children can be isolated from reality and society.

Statistics say that home schooled Kids Perform better at tests than those who study in schools. But home education can be expensive because in Some Schools materials are provided for free, but if children study at home they have to provide themselves for all study materials.

SELF MOTIVATION

Self-motivation is the ability to inspire and drive yourself towards your goals and tasks. It often involves setting clear objectives, maintaining a positive mindset, breaking tasks into smaller steps, rewarding yourself for accomplishments, and staying focused on your aspirations.

- Varatiya Shlok - Std. 8D

Self motivated people always try to find a way to complete the task. They have a strong will power to motivate themselves and others to perform any exceptional task. If we are self motivated, we can overcome any tough or difficult situation in our lives.

We are all
Different
but Unique

Elephant:- I am the biggest animal on land.

Ant:- So what ? I am the smallest animal.

Elephant:- Ha... Ha... Ha...

Ant:- Why are you laughing?

Elephant: Because you are sooo small. Ha ha ha...

Ant:- He? God made me small and the God made you big Elephant:- I know... But you cannot do anything where as I cando everything.

Ant:-How ? I cannot understand this.

Elephant:- Because you are so tiny

Ant:-I know i am tiny But I am not weak. I am not lazy.

Elephant:- oho! Achha ? Can Ant not lazy you break this branch of a tree?

Ant:- No I can not.

Elephant:- So how can you say that you are not weak.

Ant:- Yes, I am not as strong as you. But you also cannot do what I can do.

Elephant:- Really?

Ant: Yes my dear friend
Elephant :- OK. Tell me. what you can do that I cannot.

Ant:- I can go in a tiny hole. I can carry load than my own wait but you cannot do this at all.

Elephant:- It is true?

Ant :- Yes my dear elephant. Elephant:- It means you are stronger than me?

Ant:- No my, friend. This is because every animal, big and small has their own strength and weakness, have their uniqueness.

Elephant:- I never think about it. Sorry!

Ant - It's ok. Many of us think like you. But we have to understand that everyone have their own qualities.

Elephant :- Yes every one is Unique. We have to respect everyone.

Ant:- Yes We all are Unique

Importance of Books in Life

Indulge your mind and escape into a world of endless possibilities with the timeless companionship of books!

Books are not just pages bound together; they hold the power to ignite our imagination, expand our knowledge, and shape our perspectives.

Darji Paras Std. 8-D

Books hold immense importance in life as they provide a gateway to knowledge, ideas and perspectives. They help us learn, expand our understanding, and stimulate our imagination. Reading books enhances critical thinking, empathy, and language skills, contributing to personal growth and intellectual development. Books also offer solace, entertainment, and a way to escape from reality. Overall, they play a vital role in shaping our thoughts, broadening our horizons, and enriching our lives.

Poem on tree

I am a tree
with dark tree green crown
and the strong trunk
Above the ground
I give you food
I give you fruits
I give you medicine
I give you wood
I need some sunlight
and some fresh water air
I need some water
and your Loving Care

Water

Water for the flowers,
Water for the trees,
Water for the birds,
Water for you and me.

Water for rivers,
Water for sea,
Water for the world,
Water for you and me.

Save water,
Save earth,
Water is precious,
Because water is for you and me.
